Write a Book Review

In this lesson, we published a book review by seventh-grader Malachi Mack. Have you recently read a book that inspired you like The Call of the Wild inspired Malachi? Use this guide to help you write a review. Then send it to Doris, 507 Broadway, New York, NY 10012. (Be sure to include a return form, but not your letter!) You might just see YOUR review in a future issue!

Organize Your Thoughts

1. What is the book's main idea or message about? _____
2. What does the book tell you and what? _____
3. What is the main character's biggest strength or weakness? _____
4. Describe the main character(s). _____

5. Summarize what the book is about in one sentence. _____

6. What is the theme or main idea of the story? (Example: Our theme of (hard) work makes each of us who we are; you must follow your own path to achieve your things.) _____

7. What kind of person might enjoy reading this book? (Example: If you love stories about wild animals or, well, that you don't want to take like Harry's, 20,000 Leagues Under the Sea.) _____

8. What is your overall impression of the book? _____

Time to Write!

Use your responses to the questions above as an outline to write your review. Then decide on a central point, such as this story shows how friendship helps keep you withstanding. Put your central point in the first paragraph.

After some years in the legal profession, Andrew Hammond retrained as a teacher and has taught English for ten years in schools across the south east of England. "My team are so enthusiastic about the So you really want to learn English and the Junior English books that I had to send off a new order immediately! We are real fans!" Anni, Moray Firth School "Our Year Three classes found the subject matter stirring and the exercises challenging - just what was needed to forge a solid foundation in their written English." Nigel Ramage, Papplewick School "Rigorous but fun, systematic but creative - Andrew Hammond's book is just what every Year 3 pupil needs. And the emphasis on wider reading is spot on." Susan Elkin, writer and teacher of English at Benenden School 1993 - 2004 This book provides a complete set of answers and answer guidelines to the exercises in Junior English Book 1. He has prepared boys and girls for the 11+ and 13+ Common Entrance and Scholarship exams as well as working as a Year 5 class teacher, Year 6 Coordinator, KS3 Coordinator and Head of English and Drama. Andrew is the Head of English and Drama at Cophorne Preparatory School and lives in Surrey with his wife and three young rascals. Sorry, but the page you were trying to view does not exist.
